Purchasing an InterCEPT Class

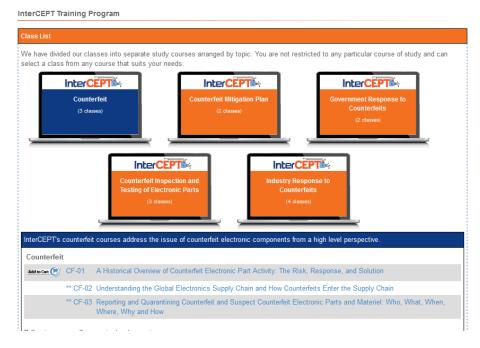

Viewing Classes

Clicking on the Class List button in the left side navigation will display all classes. Please note that classes with a double asterisk () are classes that are in development. Classes are grouped by separate study courses. You are not restricted to any particular course of study and can select a class from any course that suits your needs.

Introductory classes within each track are listed first and end in -01. These classes are designed specifically as overview classes for each individual course track. Other courses listed in the track provide in-depth coverage of the selected topic.

Clicking on each individual computer screen will open the study course you have selected and will display the classes available within that topic. Each InterCEPT class is listed by the class identification (e.g. CP-01) and the name of the class. To view details about the class, you can click on the class name to view the class description page.

Class Descriptions

Each class description page will show the following sections:

Course Overview – a generalized class description.

Course Content – topics covered in the class.

Course Learning Objectives – key learning points covered in the class.

Target Audience by Industry Sectors and Job Functions – Industry sectors and job functions that would most benefit by the class. Industry sectors include organization types (e.g. Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEM), Independent Distributors, Government Agencies) while job functions show organization department names (e.g. Sales, Quality, Contracting) to help you decide which class is best for you and your employees.

Class Information – includes the class length and tuition price in U.S. Dollars.

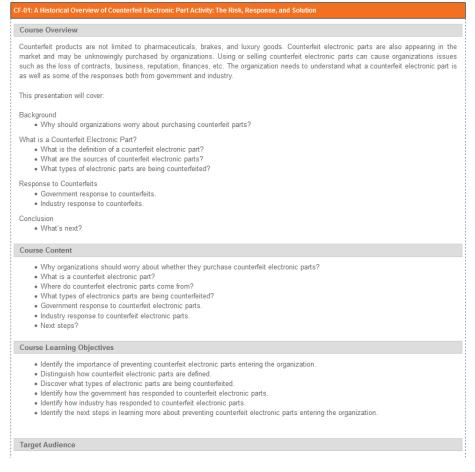

List of Prerequisites and Recommended Pre-Course Learning – While most InterCEPT classes do not have prerequisites, advanced learning courses are best suited for students with a specific knowledge base. InterCEPT does not require you to take an introductory class prior to an advanced learning class; however, we strongly urge you to review the class description page(s) for all courses listed in this section to ensure that you or your employees can fully benefit from an advanced class.

Related InterCEPT Courses – Other InterCEPT classes that cover similar topics as the course you are viewing.

Course Handouts – Class handouts that will be available to students who take the selected class. These will vary per the selected class but can include checklists, tables, graphs, etc. to further enhance key learning objectives.

ERAI Training Certificate Classes

Selecting InterCEPT Classes

As previously mentioned, classes within each course of study that are listed first and end in -01 are designed as introductory overview classes for each individual course track. Other courses listed in each track are designed as "advanced" classes providing in-depth coverage of the selected topic. We highly encourage you to review the course learning objectives to determine your knowledge base for each class you are interested in as advanced learning courses are best suited for students who have already received prior training or have relevant work experience that addresses the learning points presented in the introductory classes.

Within the shopping cart you will be able to modify the number of students who will be taking the class and assign students to a class (if purchasing a class for an employee).

Assignment of Students to a Class (Optional)

If you are purchasing classes for employees, assigning a student to a class during the purchasing process is optional. You can proceed with your purchase without completing this step. By default, the first student assigned to a class is the person completing the purchase; however, this can be changed during the assignment step of the checkout or through the Class Management Console as long as the class has not been started.

To assign a student to a class, enter the individual's first name, last name and email address.

Subtitles

InterCEPT has made enhancements to ensure that individuals with hearing impairments have an equal opportunity to benefit from our training classes. Each class permits a student to turn on a text-based transcript that follows the audio narration. Anyone who requires auxiliary services for effective communication can contact InterCEPT at 239-261-6268 for individual assistance.

By default, subtitles are turned off. To turn on subtitles, click on the "T" button at the bottom left corner of the training field. Clicking on the "T" button again will disable the subtitles.

Quizzes

Each class will contain multiple choice quizzes throughout the class. These quizzes will prepare you for the final test that you will be required to pass in order to receive a Certificate of Training.

Quizzes can consist of multiple choice where one or more answer may be correct. Please be sure to read each question and corresponding directions thoroughly. In the example below, please note the system states that the question allows for multiple answers indicating that more than one answer is correct.

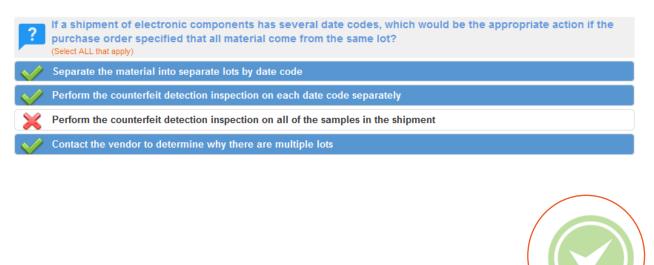

This question allows for multiple answers

Submit Answer

To select your answers, simply click on the answer(s) you believe are correct and then click on the Submit Answer button.

InterCEPT will tell you which answers you marked were correct and which were not. In the example below, the student selected all of the correct answers.

Next (

If a student answers the quiz question incorrectly, a red X will appear in the bottom right of the screen.

Once you complete the quiz, the class will continue to the next slide. Quizzes are not scored and do not count towards your final exam.

Final Exams

At the end of the class, you will be presented with a final exam. You must achieve a passing score to obtain your Certificate of Training. The final exam will be a series of questions similar to the ones you already answered in quizzes throughout the class. Please be sure to read the instructions for each question. Some questions will require you to select one answer from a multiple choice selection while others will require you to select multiple answers. Unlike quizzes, the system will not display the correct answers for each question. Please note that if you stop or close the window during the exam, your answers will not be saved and you will be required to re-start the exam from the beginning when you resume the class.

If you do not pass the final exam, you will have the opportunity to re-take the class from the beginning and re-take the final exam. Please remember you have 60 days' time from the time you first began the class to pass the final exam. You may re-take the class and final exam an unlimited number of times during the 60 day time period.
